

SENSATIONAL SHOOTING OCCURS ON AN EARLY MORNING TRAIN

Vesta No. 5 Man Accused of Attempt to Kill Wife
and Two Others

MARTIAL TROUBLES CAUSE

Deliberately and without a word entering the coach where his wife sat with another woman and a man, as companions, Edward Ryan aged 34 years this morning at Centerville on the northbound morning school train due in Charleroi at 7:22 pulled his revolver and fired three shots, one at each of the trio. School girls on their way to California Normal screamed and fainted, while Conductor A. C. Moffitt and brakeman Edward Hoover overpowered the desperate man. Mrs. Lulu Ryan, the man's wife, Mrs. Jane Shanefelt, aged 60 and John Shanefelt, Mrs. Shanefelt's son were not seriously hurt. Mrs. Ryan, the worst injured sustained a bullet wound in her right shoulder.

Martial troubles are said to have been at the bottom of the sensational affair. In March 1917 the Ryans were married and until January 1 of this year lived together. Then they separated, the husband accusing his wife of infidelity. He went to Vesta No. 5 to live and work. She remained at Fairchance.

Wednesday a serious charge was preferred before Justice of the Peace Harshman at Fredericktown against the woman, her husband being the informant. The hearing took place Wednesday night. Mrs. Ryan was accompanied to the place by Mrs. Shanefelt and the man alleged by her husband to be her affinity, John Shanefelt.

This morning the three boarded the morning train at Fredericktown, intending to come to Brownsville and then to return to Fairchance. At Centerville, a station a short distance north, Ryan got on the train. According to the story he went at once to the coach where the three sat and pulled his gun. In an instant the car was in an uproar and girls and women fainted, while men dodged under their seats.

Whether because of the shaking of the train or whether Ryan had lost his nerve all his bullets went wild. The first bullet struck Mrs. Ryan in the shoulder and it appeared for a moment as though it had caused a death wound. Then the smoking weapon was turned toward Mrs. Shanefelt, whom the outraged husband blamed partly for his troubles. One of her fingers was clipped cleanly at the second joint. The third bullet inflicted a scalp wound at the base of John Shanefelt's skull.

Ryan was held under the guard of the conductor and brakeman until West Brownsville was reached when he was placed in the lockup. At a hearing before Justice of the Peace C. E. Eckels at West Brownsville he waived a hearing for court and will be sent to jail to await court action on a charge of felonious shooting with intent to kill. John Shanefelt dropped from the train as he saw Ryan's intentions and caught a later one to West Brownsville. Later with his mother and Mrs. Ryan he left for Fairchance.

REHEARSALS WELL UNDER WAY FOR "WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES"

Firemen's Benefit Play to be Given
Next Wednesday and Thursday—
Specialties to be Features.

Rehearsals are being held nightly for the firemen's play, "What Happened to Jones," the comedy drama which will be presented at the high school auditorium next Wednesday and Thursday nights for the benefit of the Charleroi Fire Department. James S. Russel is directing the presentation and is taking a part in the play.

Specialty numbers between acts promise to be attractive especially. C. C. Humphries, the well known local tenor will sing various selections and Louis D'Augustino will play mandolin solos. James Oates, Jr., will give Charley Chaplin impersonations.

The comedy is an especially attractive one in three acts with all the scenes laid in New York city.

MAY DRAW 24TH IN THE PROBE

Talk of Congressional District Being Interested in Brewer's Investigation

HEARING POSTPONED A WEEK

Evidence of the use of liquor money in the recent special election for congressman in the Twenty-fourth congressional district which includes counties, is reported to have been volunteered to the United States government agents investigating the political activities of the breweries. In whose interest this money is said to have been used could not be learned, as the government agents have not yet investigated the information given them.

The activity of a Westmoreland county brewing company in Allegheny county politics it is reported will be one of the interesting features of the probe when all the facts are brought to light.

The grand jury took up the investigation today, but after hearing one witness, James Moore, assistant cashier of the Northwestern National bank of Philadelphia, Pa., the inquiry was adjourned until Tuesday at the request of counsel for the brewing interests.

CORONER TO PROBE MONESSEN SHOOTING

Inquest to be Held in Charleroi Tonight—Upon Result
Will Hinge Action to be Taken by Westmoreland County Authorities

Tonight at 7 o'clock Coroner James T. Heffran of Washington county will conduct an inquiry into the death of Peter Perchik, a Russian who was shot by Policeman Phillip Pascoe at Monessen last Sunday morning. District Attorney M. Ward Eicher of Westmoreland county has authorized Coroner Heffran to conduct a thorough investigation without taking the formality of turning the case over to Westmoreland county. Hence upon the result of tonight's inquest will hinge largely the action that will be taken in Westmoreland as to whether or not Policeman Pascoe will be held for the killing.

Self defense is the plea that the police who is an Italian makes. He maintains that he ordered a party of Russians to cease noise-making between 1 and 2 o'clock Sunday morning and that the members of the party assaulted him. He fired twice in the ground upon regaining his freedom, but that did not serve to frighten the Russians it is told. One of them, the man who is now dead, seized his gun, the story goes, when the trigger was pulled either accidentally or intentionally. The bullet entered the Russian's abdomen, causing his death.

Several witnesses will be called in the case and it is probable the Italian policeman, Pascoe will be put on oath. Pascoe is now being held on bail in Westmoreland county having given himself up.

Jury men who have been summoned to hear the testimony, which will be taken at the rooms of Deputy Coroner Lawrence B. Frye are: George Kammerer, James Dawson, I. P. Hepler, John Lake, Edwin D. Todd and Joseph Lytle.

DEATH OF SEVEN-YEAR OLD LAD UNAVOIDABLE JURY DETERMINES

WASHINGTON COUNTY DEFENDANT
IN $10,000 BRIDGE DAMAGE SUIT

J. W. Breckenridge Maintains His Property Was Misused Through Building of Structure.

Washington county is defendant in a $10,000 damage suit by J. W. Breckenridge, owner of property on Water street, West Brownsville. The action grows out of the construction of the river bridge between West Brownsville and Brownsville and the alleged closing of Water street in front of the plaintiff's property. Mr. Breckenridge resides in Brownsville.

The property of the plaintiff is located at the corner of Bridge and Water street in West Brownsville, 60x100 feet. Upon the lot is a two story and mansard frame building occupied and used as a hotel.

The plaintiff avers in making a claim for damages, that the county in constructing this river bridge and the approach thereto changed the grade in front of his property by raising the grade of Bridge street from four to ten feet.

COMMITTEES OF HOSPITAL NAMED

Work of Local Institution
for Coming Year Planned
—One New Name Added

REPORT FOR MONTH HEARD

Committees were named for the year at a meeting of the Charleroi Monessen Hospital directors Wednesday night, this constituting the chief business of a busy evening. The superintendent's report of the hospital was made by Miss A. Foster Watson, showing during the month just closed that 58 cases were accepted, 33 being surgical and 20 medical. The hospital is now crowded to capacity and additional room is needed. Consequently arrangements were made to rent a small building back of the hospital.

The first training school board in the history of the institution was named to consist of Mrs. A. O. Davis, Mrs. J. J. O'Brien, Mrs. C. R. Peregrine, A. N. Shuster and R. J. Whitehead.

Other committees named for the year are as follows:
Executive committee—A. N. Shuster, Mrs. A. O. Davis, Mrs. J. J. O'Brien, J. J. Cushing, R. A. Roberts.

Staff committee—S. L. Woodward, R. J. Whitehead, J. S. Duvall. Building and grounds—Eli H. Wolfe, H. A. Heupel, Louis J. Mitchell, Mrs. C. R. Peregrine, Mrs. J. J. Cushing.

Ways and means—W. R. Gaut, J. J. Cushing, Mrs. A. O. Davis, Mrs. J. J. O'Brien, S. L. Woodward. At the Wednesday meeting Mrs. J. H. Arnold a member of the board of

Boy Killed by Street Car
Ran Into it, Witnesses
Say, Going Under Wheels

NUMBER OF WITNESSES HEARD

No blame was placed by the coroner's jury Wednesday evening sitting in the inquest into the death of a seven-year-old George Patrak, who was killed Tuesday evening, February 1 by being decapitated by a car of the Westside Electric Street Railways company. The jury simply found that the accident was unavoidable. Coroner James T. Heffran conducted the inquest at the office of Deputy Coroner Lawrence B. Frye.

Witnesses in giving their testimony stated that the Patrak boy had been playing with others of similar age on Tenth street and Fallowfield avenue and that he had run directly toward the car, his head turned to watch companions. He collided with the car and though nobody saw him, went under the wheels. The car had been running slow and at the time of the accident was still running slow. Motor man Joseph Yates testified that he had no knowledge that the boy had been hit. Passengers on the car he hit. He thought simply that he had been hit. Passengers on the car had no knowledge of the accident until the car stopped. Boys playing on the street with little George said he had been playing "Release" and had darted into a ring to release some of them, and then into the car. The knew the car was coming and though that George had known it too.

The witnesses called, including some who were on the car were the following: Miss Marian Benedict Joseph Patrak, aged 9; Mrs. Ann Patrak, mother of the boy; Albert and Harry Echer, aged 9; Joe Cope mit, aged 9; John Millick aged 8; Miss Mary Welsh, Miss Nelle McCann William Darby, Jr., Mrs. John Hartley, Joseph Rossell, Conductor George Harris and Motorman Joseph Yates.

The verdict rendered was as follows: "We, the jury find that George Patrak came to his death February 1, 1916 as the result of hemorrhage resulting from injuries sustained under a car operated by Motorman Joseph Yates and Conductor George Harris. We further find that the accident was unavoidable."

The members of the jury were Floyd Chalfant, foreman; John W. Carroll, St. D., Hill, Jay O. Boshart, W. D. Pollock and L. F. Mitchell.

Meets With Painful Accident
John Rock of Charleroi met with a painful accident at the Monessen tub mill Wednesday, an iron tube falling on his foot. The injury was dressed by the company doctor.

GETTING AFTER "SPITTERS."
The campaign against the spitting evil has fair to become national. In New York, Chicago and numerous cities of smaller dimensions, men are being arrested and fined for spitting on the sidewalk. Most of our cities have for years had ordinances prohibiting such conduct, but the prohibition has been a dead letter, maintaining the Beaver Daily Times. Now
the widespread prevalence of colds,
grip, bronchitis and other easily communicable diseases has aroused city health authorities to insist on strict enforcement.

It works hardships in individual cases, but there's no doubt of the value and importance of such a regulation. The doctors say there is no other method of spreading disease that does so much harm. If people could only rid themselves of the practice of indiscriminate expectoration,
the nation would be incomparably
healthier and happier.

The hygienic consideration isn't the only one, either. Americans have always been reproached on the score of delicacy and decency for their proneness to this nasty vice. It isn't so bad now as in the days when Charles Dickens held us up to ridicule, but it's worse, even yet, in all parts of the United States than anywhere else in the world.

A general sentiment ought to be aroused against spitting not merely because it's unhealthful, but because it's bad manners.

WHO AM I.

Here is a commendable safety first editorial that is going the rounds of exchanges:

I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world.

I am more deadly than bullets, and I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest of siege guns.

I steal in the United States alone
over $300,000,000 each year.

I spare no one, and find my victims among the rich and poor alike; the young and the old; the strong and the weak; widows and orphans know me.

I massacre thousands upon thousands of wage-earners in a year.

I lurk in unseen places and do most of my work silently. You are warned against me, but you need not.

I am relentless. I am everywhere;
in the home, on the street in the factory, at railroad crossings and on the sea.

I bring sickness, degradation and death and yet few seek to avoid me.

I destroy, crush and maim; I give nothing but take all.

I am your worst enemy.

I am carelessness.

WISE IS MR. SUNDAY.

One of the wisest of all the sago-cious remarks that Billy Sunday has made since he unlimbered his batteries in Trenton, N. J., where he is conducting a big and successful revival, was that the modern newspaper is a better college than Abraham Lincoln had. Lincoln had no college. Newspapers were few and far between in those days.

The boy in Lincoln's time did not get newspapers, says the Washington Reporter. Newspapers were smaller not so often published and restricted in circulation as well as numbers. Had Lincoln had the newspaper it would have made his path a lot easier though he might not have been any greater.

The celebrated evangelist recognizes what only a few people stubbornly refuse to recognize, that the newspaper of today is the notable factor in the enlightenment of the universe
and an educational medium par excellence, containing not only past history and the news of current events, average people of today, a guide of intellectual and other advancement, and the promoter of the individual and common welfare of the overwhelming majority of people. It is the newspaper that makes people think.

People in the United States are inveterate newspaper readers before they read anything else and the newspaper is the biggest promoting medium there is. It is the advertising and news columns of a newspaper that put life into trade ad-

knows it and every man or woman who has ever thought intelligently
about it knows it.

Military Training in the public schools should hurt nobody and help a lot. For this reason it ought to be very generally adopted, whether this nation favors a war or whether it faces a reign of peace. It is not to prepare the youth of the land for possible contingencies in carrying out the idea of preparedness that the plan is entirely commendable, but also for their own individual betterment.
Military training is one thing we have overlooked in our schools and to this fact we may in part attribute the army of weak-lunged, hollow-chested, sallow-complexioned persons who are their products. Military training compels erect carriage and produces stronger and healthier bodies, while fostering patriotism. And our needs of preparedness for peace are surely as important as our needs for preparedness of war.

To withhold news is to invite criticism for a school board, council or any other organization answerable to the public. Every once in so often a man or group of men secure election
to some public office who seem to consider it their sworn and bounden duty to keep from the ears of the public all possible news of their transactions. They have the wrong idea. Their business is not to keep "shady;" their business is to keep the public informed.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Nothing succeeds like weather.

There's nothing like having a cosmopolitan Supreme court.

Suffering from stage fright isn't half as bad as suffering from stage
of fright.

Skating—er—er—the weather
has changed since we started to make that announcement, so there won't be any skating until further notice.

Considering the ease with which people could come down street Wednesday morning, complaints were rather numerous.

It seems queer lecturers of allied countries should decide upon a tour abroad just when they are talking of conscription.

When a man tells you he saw your latest joke in an almanac 19 years ago you can stand it, but when he says you who work on a newspaper have nothing to do but tinker with the scissors six hours a day, it's time to choose weapons.

One Frenchman admits he is a great fighter, having killed 25 Germans by choking them to death. His place in history is with that celebrated chap
who exterminated a whole regiment
of Indians by getting them to insert their fingers in a split log and then pulling out the wedges, leaving them
to starve.

Now about that heating stove, or that extra piece of furniture, that is in use. Many a person is waiting to buy them. You can find a purchas-

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Anybody who has ever suffered from stage fright—and who of us has not?—must smile aloud over the Western Christian Advocate:

The chairman of the committee was addressing a meeting at a teachers'
institute:

"My friends, the schoolwork is the bulhouse of civilization. I mean—ah—

He began to feel frightened.

"The bulhouse is the schoolwork of civil—"

A smile could be felt.

"The workhouse is the bulschool of civil—"

He was evidently twisted.

"The schoolbul is the housework
of civil—"

An audible snigger spread over the audience.

"The bulschool—"

He was getting wild. So were his hearers. He mopped his perspiration gritted his teeth and made a fresh start.

"The schoolhouse, my friends—"

A sigh of relief went up. Hamlet was himself again!

He gazed serenely around. The light of triumphant self-confidence was enthroned upon his brow.

"Is that woolbark—"

And that is when he lost consciousness.

John was grieving because he had no gift for his mother's birthday.

"Do not quarrel with little sister all day," suggested grandmother.

"That would be the best gift she could have," John agreed.

"Can't you see how much mother enjoyed your gift, John?" asked his grandmother at night. "Why don't you do this every day?"

John drew a breath that came from his very boots.

"I'd rather die, grandma, than live
like this every day!" he said fervently.

TWO MOTHERS TELL

How Their Sickly Children Were Made Strong and Well

"For six years our little girl suffered from a bronchial trouble, she had no appetite, could not sleep and was so nervous we had to keep her out of school. The doctor said nothing but a change of climate would help her. We were discouraged, when one day a friend asked us to try Vinol and after taking six bottles she does not look like the same child. She has a fine appetite, is lively, healthy and well and Vinol did it all."

Mrs. F. H. Huffer, Iola, Kas.
Another child made strong:—
"The measles left my little girl thin and delicate and the doctor's medicine did not seem to build her up. I read about Vinol and got a bottle, and her improvement was rapid, her strength returned and she is now as well as ever," Mrs. E. Ligot, Pittsburgh, Pa.

We ask every Charleroi mother of a frail, sickly, ailing child to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it does not restore her child's normal health. Pipers Drug Store.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM TO PLAY TECH INDUSTRIALS

At the high school auditorium tomorrow night the Charleroi high school basketball five will face another hard game in the appearance of the Carnegie Tech Industrials. This five comes rated as even a faster organization than that which faced high school last year, when the Tech team gave the locals the hardest sort of run. The following week on February 18, the University of Pittsburgh Freshmen with two Charleroi men, Lutes and Berryman in the lineup will play here.

GRIST MILL ACCIDENT CAUSES

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN FARMER

Injuries received in an accident several weeks ago at the grist mill at Hackert, which he operated caused the death Wednesday of Lank McFeely, aged 68 years, at his home in Hackert.

Mr. McFeely had suffered for weeks from the hurts received in the mishap. Mr. McFeely was born near Finleyville and had spent his entire life in that immediate district.

Mrs. McFeely survives with three sons and three daughters, who follow: Harold McFeely of Castle Shannon; William McFeely of Finleyville; Lank McFeely at home; Mrs. James McClelland of Finleyville; Mrs. Harry Herr of Wilkinsburg and Miss Elizabeth McFeely at home.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the McFeely home. Interment was in the Finleyville cemetery.

ADVANCE INTEREST SHOWN IN COMING K. OF C. DANCE

Much advance interest is being taken in the annual mid-winter dance and reception to be given by Charleroi council No. 956 and Monessen council No. 954, Knights of Columbus at the Bank of Donora hall tomorrow evening. A large crowd is anticipated by the committee.

LOCK WIZARD CLARK DIES IN PITTSBURGH

Known far and wide as the lock wizard and to locksmiths as the only man never baffled by any lock no matter how intricate its mechanism, W. C. Clark died Tuesday night at his home in Pittsburgh. Mr. Clark is known by every banker in the Monongahela valley and many business men. He helped in the work of installation of the safes in the newly remodeled Bank of Charleroi building.

FRANCES WILLARD CLASS GUESTS OF MRS. POLLOCK

Meeting of Sunday School Organization Held Wednesday Evening—Three Members On Committee.

The Frances Willard Sunday school class of the Methodist Episcopal church at a business and social meeting Wednesday evening was entertained by a committee consisting of Mrs. W. D. Pollock, Mrs. L. J. Mitchell and Mrs. S. R. Grimm at the home of the first named. There were a goodly number of members present. A solo was sung by Miss Price G. Frye, accompanied by Mrs. T. L. Pollock. A talk was given by Miss Cozetta Rodgers. A sumptuous luncheon was served.

ADVANCED BRANCH OF ODD FELLOWSHIP HERE

The first Canton of the Monongahela valley was formed at a meeting of this advanced branch of the Odd Fellows lodge Wednesday evening. Ward H. Hendershot of Charleroi was named captain, S. S. Kelley of Donora lieutenant, Robert Craig of Charleroi clerk and Arthur Chaffaway of Monongahela treasurer. The next meeting will be held March 8, at which time it is hoped a charter will be had. Charleroi will be headquarters for the organization, and all meetings will be held here.

FOR BRONCHITIS, SEVERE COUGHS COLD AND WHOOPING COUGH

Make the Best Medicine at Home—128 Teaspoonful for 50 Cents

Money spent for the old style ready-made cough medicine is a waste. Merely go to Piper's pharmacy and ask for 2 ounces (50c worth) of Schiffman's New Concentrated Expectorant, which they guarantee will give perfect satisfaction or money will be refunded. Mix this with one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of boiling water, which makes a full pint (128 teaspoonful). This new, simple, pleasant remedy is guaranteed to relieve the made medicine usually sold in bottles holding only 2 to 2½ ounces (16 to 20 teaspoonful) is largely wasted, because most of them are composed principally of sugar and water. Yet you have to pay the same price as if it were all medicine. Stop wasting this money. You can make a better remedy for bronchial affections, at home at worst cough or cold, Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough. One bottle will make enough home-made medicine to probably last the whole family the entire winter. Children like it, it is so pleasant to take. It is unlike any other medicine, and positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. Keep it on hand in case of emergency and stop each cough before it gets a firm hold. The above druggist, in fact any druggist in this city, will return the money (just the same as is done with Schiffman's famous Asthmador) in every single case where it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found the best remedy ever used. Absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy—under this positive guarantee.

WIFE OF CALIFORNIA PHYSICIAN DIES AFTER FEW DAYS ILLNESS

Mrs. Mabel George Farquhar Survived by Her Husband, Mother and Six Sisters.

Mrs. Mabel George Farquhar, wife of Dr. John W. Farquhar, died after a few days' illness. The funeral services will be held at the late home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Dr. H. N. Cameron of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Washington, assisted by the Rev. A. W. Renton of the First Methodist church of California. Interment will be in the Highland cemetery.

Mrs. Farquhar was born at Leavenworth, Fayette county in 1890. When a child she came to California with her parents and had spent her entire life there. She attended the California State Normal school but did not graduate. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and was an active church worker. She was a devout Christian woman and all who knew her loved and respected her.

Mrs. Farquhar was united in marriage with Dr. Farquhar in Washington, June 3, 1913. Besides the husband and mother, Mrs. Sara George, there survive these sisters: Mrs. Minnie Campbell of Ashtabula, Ohio; Mrs. Thomas Smith, California; Mrs. Louis Gray of Alicia and the Misses Bessie, Robina and Nora George of California.

JUDGE M'ILVAINE RECEIVES

AN UNUSUAL COMMUNICATION

Among the anonymous communications received at Washington by Judge J. A. McIlvaine anent the granting of liquor licenses was the following:

"February 7, 1916. To Our Honorable Judge of Washington Co., Pa. Dear Sir: I do trust that in the name of Jesus Christ, the Savior of all Mankind that you will cut out the licensed saloon. Surely the Washington court since you gave the license to McDonald has sent enough people to a drunkard's grave from the county. Surely from a Christian standpoint you can cut the license out as well as Judge Porter from Lawrence Co. has done for three years and several other counties has had judges to do the same. You cannot put the blame on the Brooks law when the business is left to the discretion of the court to grant or not. Remember every man will have to give account of his deeds done here when we meet the Great Judge after death. I think Billy Sunday was right when he said the saloon ought to be in hell when it sends so many people there. So many I have known that have been killed with McDonald saloons between Burgettstown and Sturgeon. May the Lord give you courage to do the right in your old days. From a Pennsylvania citizen."

REV. NOBLE USES SUBJECT OF

SALT IN BRINGING OUT LESSON

Christians Should Preserve Christianity The Same That Salt Preserves Is His Idea.

On the theme of "Salt" Rev. S. G. Noble at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening preached a convincing sermon. The song service began at 7:45. Rev. Noble read his scripture lesson and W. C. Clark offered prayer. The sermon was convincing that Christians are the salt of the earth. "For" said the speaker "salt preserves and so does the Christian. Righteous men could have saved Sodom; righteous men must save Charleroi." A strong plea was made to Christian people to try to live up to their responsibilities which their profession places upon them. As salt kills germs and cures disease, Christians were urged to purify society and drive sin from the town. The evangelist made a great point on consistency. Closing Rev. Noble said that Christians could impart their substance to those with whom they come in contact and enrich life. "Just as there are different kinds of salt," he said, "so there are different uses for all Christians."

A treat is in store for this evening when Rev. Noble's subject will be "Heaven."

"HER GREAT HOUR" FEATURE

AT MAJESTIC THEATRE TODAY

Molly McIntyre, the star of "Her Great Hour," which is at the Majestic theatre today has a part which will appeal to the minds and hearts of millions of screen lovers. Persecuted but heroic innocence, holding up against apparently overwhelming waves of adverse fate, and winning a victory over all the forces arrayed against it, foiling the machinations of a heartless woman, overcoming the designs of a group of the "powers that prey," and emerging triumphant and happy from its trials and tribulations, is a theme which would be trite were it treated in any less masterly way than has been shown in the direction of "Her Great Hour."

THEFT FOLLOWS FIRE IN

MONONGAHELA POOLROOM

Thieves Tuesday night broke into the poolroom of Charles Sanders in the Markell building and stole nearly all the equipment and supplies that had been saved from a fire of the night before. The supplies had been locked in a cupboard for safety after the fire that damaged the room. Wednesday several children in the town were seen playing with billiard cues and efforts are now being made to trace down the thieves.
